"We have always tried to be closer to the pitch by developing new technologies, and HyperMotion Technology is our way of giving the player an even more realistic experience," said Peter Strudl, Head of Global Pro Team at EA SPORTS™. "It gives a completely new dimension to the way players perform during a match." Full Playlist: FIFA 22 Features With FIFA 22, play runs at a higher speed and with more intensity than ever before. The gameplay and controls have been tuned for speed and increased action, giving fans the opportunity to perform more like the world's best footballers. With the introduction of "Dynamism" and "Counter-Attack," fans can now play the game in a completely different way, where they can run, pass and shoot at the highest speed in a more tactical approach. Touching the ball during a tackle is not only quicker and more responsive than ever before, but also makes the game feel more realistic. Unique animations, like the impact of a player taking a shot on goal and celebrating afterwards, give fans an even more immersive soccer experience. "Fans will love the speed and intensity of FIFA 22, and they can feel even closer to the action on the pitch," said Julian Heath, the Lead Designer at EA SPORTS. "FIFA has become the biggest football sport on Earth. Now, we are giving fans the opportunity to take part in that passion live, with FIFA 22." For players, the game's revamped action will help create even more excitement and a closer match. Goals now appear on screen more quickly, meaning players will come into action faster. Players benefit from new AI improvements that make it easier to dribble and stick-tackle opponents, while more intelligent training routines learn how to take on and change shape to match the goal-scoring opportunity. All of these elements can be further enhanced through a range of new training and coaching options, including ball control and tackling from more angles. FIFA 22 will be released in the Americas on September 20, in Europe on September 22 and in the Middle East on September 25. Special Edition Details The launch of FIFA 22 sees a host of special edition content for the game. FIFA 22 Special Edition includes: HyperMotion Technology FIFA 22 HyperMotion Technology reveals the real-life movements of the world's best footballers as they play FIFA 22 for the first time. What's new:

- Introducing revolutionary new player animations that more accurately reflect how players move in real life using "HyperMotion Technology," which uses motion capture data from 22 real-life players as they play a complete, high-intensity football match in motion capture suits. Relive the magic of football on and off the pitch with character-specific animations for players, pitches, stadiums and more.
- Use revolutionary new player movement animations to dominate midfield battles with stifling precision.
- New training drills: improved sprint drills for quick ball-work sessions; new ZONE training drills (manic 3v3) and airborne ball drills.
- New pre-season and post-season tournaments, with a brand new dynamic experience created for each competition based on real-world results. Pre-season tournament experience includes: timing of international breaks during pre-season, and design of the tournament itself (with player profile details). Post-season tournament experience includes: focusing on individual clubs rather than teams, with one per team
- New camera technology allows for a more consistent and varied view across the pitch at any speed or angle. New camera angles can be accessed in both offline and online modes, and now include: 'the best of view', 'camera three', and 2 unique angled views.
- Introducing a brand new player class system to create a wealth of tactics and understanding, from the deepest strikers through to the quickest midfielders. A balanced badge progression means that every player class in the FIFA Ultimate Team is designed to showcase and challenge different aspects of your play style, with players available to advance to the next, wider class.
- Dynamic, real-world ratings for all 24 national teams in the game.
- 23 more national teams in the game featuring the brilliant 'Virtual TAT Approved Kit' that has been digitally produced using the top 3 clubs' real-world 2010/2011 kits so you can see the similarities and differences that are found between the home and away kit; and easily identify your favourite team's 'screamer', 'camo' and 'culture'. Developed using digital 3D action photography to accurately reflect your favourite club's home, away and third kits - all worn in the 2010/2011 season.
