WITHOUT A BASE SANAA IS THE COOLEST CITY IN THE MIDDLE EAST. It's also the city where I was born and raised and where I live again now, my new home. It's full of sports complexes, beautiful houses, attractive streets, modern shopping malls, and lively markets. In this city of beauties, without limits, I met hundreds of children and adolescents with different disabilities and diseases. They are an entire community, we should take care of their health, their education, their training and they should gain the awareness of their potentialities with the aim to develop in our society. I decided to give a hand to these children and adolescents and I began to create a room for them.
